

Bungalow in Pilar de la Horadada Ref : 181901

Description

A few meters from the beach and all the services you can imagine, from schools , public services, parks, and residential areas that make this location a quiet place yet easily accessible.

This exclusive project consists of 6 bungalows with two bedrooms and two bathrooms, with a wonderful community pool, independent garages and storage rooms.

Enjoy lots of natural light thanks to its orientation. The ground floor homes have a front terrace and also in the back, which gives the homes extra space and lots of light.

The homes on the first floor have a solarium, which provides the homes with the necessary space to enjoy our good weather, practically all year round.

The exterior and interior design combines the latest materials with unbeatable quality, both in insulation and soundproofing, as well as in durability, always maintaining a modern line with a Mediterranean character.

The community outdoor space achieves that exclusivity characteristic of this development, giving privacy to the owners with an exceptional pergola and corners that help children and adults enjoy this space for leisure and relaxation.
